

Below is a list of all applicant question submitted to RIVETS regarding RFP072023.

Is there a page limit for our narrative response within the application?

There is no page limit for the narrative response.

Would you like the entire application, including “other required documents,” submitted as a pdf?

There is no preference as to what format the application and supporting documents are submitted (PDF or Word document). However, based on the size of the file, converting the document to a PDF may help reduce the file size.

Do you have a program budget template we should adhere to or do we create our own, following the guidelines in Section 2.G. of the Application Template?

You may create your own budget template, or you may use the Rhode Island Designated Grant Budget Summary Template attached under “Grant Supplemental Information”

Can you share which agencies received funding and how much they received from last year’s Veteran’s Service Grant awards? Or, can you please indicate where this information is publicized?
