

“

VETERANS CAN BRING PRACTICALITY, PERSPECTIVE AND A RESERVOIR OF EXPERIENTIAL KNOWLEDGE TO AMERICAN CULTURE THAT THE THEATER DESPERATELY NEEDS... WE ARE NOT HERE TO HELP VETERANS. WE ARE VETEARNs WHO ARE HERE TO HELP REINVIGORATE AMERICAN THEATER.

APPRENTICESHIPS

Veterans Repertory Theater's apprenticeship program encompasses a wide variety of jobs in theater production. Under the guidance and mentorship of an industry professional, eligible veterans and immediate family members will experience hands-on training in their field of interest, ranging from wardrobe and props to set design and more. The program can range from a few days to a full year and apprentices will work 38 hours per week.

PART-TIME JOBS

Unlock new opportunities with VetRep's part-time jobs program! Designed specifically for veterans and immediate family members, this program offers flexible work schedules and a great work environment. Positions include bartenders, stagehands, food runners, front-of-house staff and security. Come grow with us!

INTERNSHIPS

VetRep's internship program gives eligible high school and college students experience in theatre production under the guidance of VetRep's staff. Positions range from box office management to marketing to technology and development.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to apply for an apprenticeship with VetRep, you must be current or former US military, law enforcement, fire service, EMS, foreign service, intelligence service, DoD employee, DoD Contractor; or an immediate family member.

HOW TO APPLY

Send an email with a cover letter that clearly indicates which program you are interested in and resume to info@vetrep.org. If you are selected, you will be asked to meet with us in-person for an interview.
